

IWASAKI LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

Iwasaki Library at Emerson College

2024 Teach-In on Race

In February, the 8th annual Teach-in on Race explored the theme, 'A "New Normal" Just Won't Do: Intersectionality in the Arts and Communication,' featuring keynote speaker Grace Talusan. Dive deeper into these crucial conversations by exploring our curated LibGuide, which includes session and related resources such as books, ebooks, DVDs, streaming media, and more.

LibGuide

Library Lifeline

Students who know the ins and outs of research understand that having a helping hand can make all the difference, which is why we've categorized our resources by major. Whether you're diving into a project for class or need assistance getting started with your research journey, don't hesitate to reach out to us.

Writing, Literature, & Publishing

Journalism

Visual Media Arts

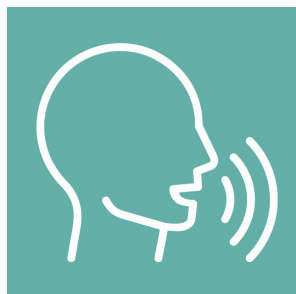

Performing Arts

Our Ask a Librarian service is here to support you every step of the way:

Ask a Librarian

Communication Studies

Communication Sciences & Disorders

Marketing Communications

Marlboro Institute

Lit Lounge: Women's History Month

Welcome to the "Lit Lounge," our curated book display in the library that changes every month! This March, we're highlighting Women's History Month. Dive into the picks selected by our staff to enrich your learning and celebrate the achievements of women throughout history. Don't forget to stop by the display and share your book thoughts with us!

View on Instagram

Rethink, Recreate, Recycle: An Upcycled Art Challenge!

Join us for the 2024 Upcycled Art Competition happening now until March 28, 3-4 pm! Collaborating with Sustainability, the Iwasaki Library invites all students, faculty, and staff to unleash creativity by crafting artwork from recycled books. Win prizes like an upcycled blanket and movie tickets! Earn points for the upcycled blanket and movie tickets! Earn points for the Scouts 4 Sustainability challenge with more prizes available. Don't miss the Express competition on March 28, 2-3 pm to participate and view final creations, in the CoLab inside the Library!

Learn More

Traveling During Spring Break? Take the Library with You!

If you're on the move during Spring Break, you can take books, magazines, music, and movies from your local public library with you without adding to your luggage load. Free online sign up for residents!

Use the buttons below to navigate to free resources!

Boston Public Library E-Card Sign Up

E-Books

Audiobooks

Magazines

Newspapers

TV & Movies

Music

Los Angeles Public Library E-Card Sign Up

E-Books

Audiobooks

Magazines

Newspapers

TV & Movies

Music

Looking Ahead: The Transition to FOLIO System

Last month, we previewed our library consortium's new FOLIO System, so what's next?

When we switch over in June, you'll only see Emerson's materials in the beginning. Don't worry, though - we can still borrow from other libraries for you (interlibrary loan and Commonwealth Catalog)!

Thanks for Reading!

Questions? Reach out to reference@emerson.edu

Emerson College Library | 150 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02116

Unsubscribe delia_buhl@emerson.edu

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by cheryl_mcgrath@emerson.edu powered by

Try email marketing for free today!