IN SORROW, VIGILANCE

If there was ever a question of the supreme importance of communications in our society, the tragedy of November 22 and the somber days that followed provided a thundering answer. Our hats are off to America's broadcasting networks for a superb job of handling the biggest news story of many a year; for keeping the entire nation informed when information, sometimes, was at a premium. From minute to minute, we were kept abreast of the events which concerned every citizen, and indeed the entire world. Never has American broadcasting shown to such outstanding advantage.

Just three weeks before, NBC's Robert Sarnoff had spoken at Founder's Day on "Broadcasting: A Force for Freedom." And the four days following the assassination of John F. Kennedy showed conclusively that, if they will, American broadcasters can supply a great share of that eternal vigilance which is, and always will be, the price of liberty.

HOMECOMING '63

Homecoming is a time of contrasts. It is the enjoyment of the well-remembered scenes and the nostalgic deja vu of the days that now seem even better than they were. It is a comingling of youth and age . . . of yesterday and tomorrow . . . of now and forever.

And our days of wine and roses are not over . . . they are ever with us . . . they are ever touched with the magic of fellowship, even as here, when LEAH SCOTT receives roses from CAROL ARDITO '64 and membership in the Class of '64 from President BARBARA MILLER, as she prepares to seal the honor with a kiss.

F. Bradford Morse was the speaker at the Alumni Luncheon on Saturday. His talk, "Crisis in Communications," was cogent and well-received.

"I think," he said, "that we are failing in the substance of what we seek to communicate. We are more concerned with communicating impressions and fantasies rather than facts . . . more concerned with the creation of shadow rather than substance."

coming as Director of Alumni Records.

Polonsky, Professor of Fine Arts at Brandeis University, who created the painting. The work now occupies the east end of the Mahogany Room in Governors' House. Mrs. Nahum and Mrs. Parker, the donors of the painting, are both members of the Hartford Emerson Club.

Mr. Bean and Mr. Stelkovic were elected members of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Stelkovic as a result of the balloting conducted among the alumni in October. Mrs. Beal became a member of the Corporation as did HELEN ROSS GASKINS '30. Also elected to the Trustees was DEHAVEN ROSS, whose wife, JESSIE SOUTHWICK ROSS, is a daughter of the late President Southwick.

Chatting with the trio above is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, attorney LOOMIS PATRICK of Newton, Massachusetts.

On Sunday, Robert Sarnoff, Chairman of the Board of the National Broadcasting Company, received the

Mr. Sarnoff spoke later in the day at the Founder's Day Convocation on "Broadcasting—A Force for Freedom." He received an honorary Litt. D. degree at the convocation, along with the other honorary degree recipients, whose photographs appear on page 7.

All in all, Homecoming was a stimulating weekend, marred only by some rather inclement and chilly weather. But those who returned had a good time, and left this word for those who didn't:

"Why don't you try it next year?"

M.A.), MALCOLM SUTHERLAND, President of Chicago's Meadville Theological School (Hon. LL.D.), MICHAEL BURKE '64, President of Phi Alpha Tau, R. DENNIS BECKER

From the desk of President Blanche H. Dow of the American Association of University Women:

"On behalf of the Board of Directors of the American Association of University Women, I am pleased to notify you officially that your institution has been placed on the AAUW qualified list. Women graduates, including those who graduated with a recognized baccalaureate or higher degree prior to AAUW listing, are now eligible for membership in the Association."

Club Notes

The Hartford Club has formed a choral speaking choir under the direction of HONEY GROCER LEVINS. The group was making its first public appearance as BEACON went to press. We'll report the accolades in the next issue.

DORIS VIRGILIO LABONTE has hopes of activating a Worcester County Club. Any alumni in the area wishing to roll up their sleeves and pitch in may reach her at 15 General Avenue in Shrewsbury.

The Alumni Fund

It is with pardonable pride that we announce Bill Dana '50 as General Chairman of the 1964 Emerson College Alumni Fund. Bill has long been a vocal advocate of the Emerson system of education, though his Jose Jimenez characterization might put the lie to the Emerson X voice.

Though, as can be imagined, he is up to his ears in The Bill Dana Show on television and with guest shots and record albums constantly infringing upon his spare time, Bill never forgets Emerson. In October, he phoned the Alumni Offices to let them know that he was starting a $500 scholarship to be given in his name annually to a student of Latin American descent. At that time, with crossed fingers, Joan B. Whitney '60 and Mike Carney '56, Coordinating Chairman of the '64 Fund asked him if he would act as General Chairman.

"I'd be delighted to," came back the answer in the round, full tones that are seldom heard by his TV fans.

Bill is certain that this year will be another banner one for Emerson which is why he is taking time from this extremely busy schedule to spearhead the '64 Fund.

Each year, Emerson's Alumni Fund has moved slowly but surely forward. We now have a solid core of support from almost a thousand loyal alumni. This year let each of us increase our contributions as much as possible. For, make no mistake, education is an expensive process and if Emerson is to continue its steady rise, it needs continued and increased help from its alumni.

March 2, 1964 is the opening day for the Fund.

Start putting a few dollars aside now so that when the call goes out you will be ready.

GUYS and DOLLS

JOAN E. MORGAN, '63 of Beverly, Mass., to Stephen O. Lunn, also of Beverly. Miss Morgan is a member of Sigma Alpha Eta, professional fraternity for speech and hearing therapists. She is presently a candidate for her master's degree at Emerson. Mr. Lunn is a senior at Northeastern University, where he is majoring in industrial engineering. He is a member of Nu Epsilon Zeta Fraternity. A May wedding is planned.

MARJORIE M. BARON, '65 of Waterbury, Conn., to FRANCIS L. O'MARA, '61 of Boston, Mass., (formerly of Gardiner, Maine.) A June 20, 1964, wedding is planned.

A daughter, Lea, to Mr. and Mrs. LOUIS STAMOULIS '58 of Natick, Mass., November 14, 1963. This is the Stamoulis' first child. Lou is Promotion-Production Supervisor at WNAC-TV in Boston.

A son, Jonathon Joseph, to Mr. ROBERT JULIAN '53 and Mrs. Julian on August 8, 1963. He joins his brother, Robert Richard Julian, Jr., age 2½ years.

DR. JESSIE ROYER GREAVES was one of two prominent Paoli residents honored by the American National Red Cross in October. The citation in commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the world-wide Red Cross movement, were presented "in grateful recognition of distinguished service to humanity." Dr. Greaves, or Mother Greaves as she is called by her many friends, is the noted founder of a school which is internationally known for its treatment of blind children whose IQ measurements did not allow them to enter other institutions for the blind.

Mrs. ANNIE WALKER BROWN, 83, died October 15, 1963 at the Pikes Hill Nursing Home in Norway, Maine after an illness of many weeks. For a number of years, she was associated with the Norway, Maine Advertiser-Democrat as a proof reader.

Mr. ERNEST W. CARMAN dropped us a short note just prior to Homecoming. "I am active in practice of law and hope to close my office by February 4, 1964 when I shall be 84 years old. I shall begin to write my family history."

'06

Mrs. HELEN BADGELEY MOLLER writes that though she passed her eightieth birthday on November 28th, she is still very busy in speech therapy in St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada.

Miss MAY E. HANCOCK died at a Windham, Maine nursing home, November 11, 1963 after a long illness. For many years she was a member of the faculty of Gordon College.

'07 MARY PARLIN HUDDY, 219 Kendrick Ave., Quincy 69, Massachusetts

After accepting the Class of '07 Alumni Fund award for the Class of 1907 at Homecoming, MARY PARLIN HUDDY had a word for the later classes, "We've shown you younger ones what we can do. You better put your cleats on your toes, because we'll be after it again."

'09 BERENICE WRIGHT (Mrs. I. K.) LEWIS, 18 West Constance Ave., Apt. 2-E, Santa Barbara, California

MARY SLIFER MacMURTIE writes, "My chief satisfaction is that the work we have done through the years had paid off in the lives of former students. To be, or have been a member of the Children's Theatre or Junior Theatre means much in Tucson." Mrs. MacMurtrie is now undertaking a Public Library Story Hour. This is something we old graduates could copy in any town and be useful civically no matter if we are retired.

Mrs. MARY CLARK NIGHTINGALE died in Salt Lake City, August 1, 1963 following a long illness due to a heart condition.

'10 CHRISTINE HODGDON (Mrs. E. C.) KIELY, 563 Fellsway East, Malden, Massachusetts

Stop! Read! Think!

Can you believe it? Only one year ahead—June, 1965—will be our 50th Reunion! Begin planning to attend and give—and more from me anon.

It is a happy note that RUTH ADAMS PARKER has sufficiently recovered from last winter's illness to again take part in Alumni activities. Homecoming Weekend was heart warming and inspirational. Emerson is on the move. Elsewhere in BEACON you'll see a picture of Ruth Parker with her latest contribution to Emerson, a beautiful oil portrait of Dr. McKinley presented at Homecoming. In mid September, eight classmates and Kappas who have been part of a Round Robin for over 50 years spent a week together at Heritage Hill, an inn near Sturbridge Village in Western Massachusetts. Present were: NELLIE MONRO NEWCOMBE and RUTH ROANE STARKEY '12 from Florida; GERTRUDE COMLY WERNER from Georgia; MARJORIE KINNE DEWEY from New York, ALMA BRÜGGERMAN STANLEY from New Hampshire; ALICE DAVIDSON from Maine; RUTH ADAMS PARKER from Connecticut and your agent from Massachusetts. Won't some of you send news of yourselves? Classmates would welcome information about your present activities.

Mrs. LOIS BEIL SANDALL sent her regrets that she would not be able to attend Homecoming. "Since I leave Seattle early November 3rd for the Orient for a three week flight, I will be unable to attend. I hope my class and post-graduate class are in attendance. It was a splendid group. Please extend my cordial greetings to them and the faculty. Last night I held a rehearsal of The Terrible Meek for a recording for Seattle's Library for the Blind, to which I have given a scholarship. We have two recording machines."

'12

Mrs. MARION TUCKER RUDKIN presented The Magic of Books at the Augusta, Maine South Parish Congregational Church in September. This was the eighth consecutive year that she has come to Augusta.

'13 MYRTIE HUTCHINSON (Mrs. Charles) BOYNTON, 145 Crystal Lake Road, Osterville, Massachusetts

Our 50th Reunion is over. But the memory of the many affectionate greetings and happy reminders of by gone days still linger with me. We were specially happy that because of the loyalty and generosity of 1913 classmates, we captured the Amelia Green Wyner Trophy presented for largest amount given to the Alumni Fund. Thus we are keeping alive the memory of our devoted President, AMELIA GREEN WYNER.

In July, my husband, sister and myself took a trip to the Canadian provinces. While there I had a delightful reunion with JEAN MATHESON BLACK of Oxford, Nova Scotia. Severe illness prevented Jean from being in Boston for our 50th. Never have I received a more cordial welcome or gracious hospitality than we did from Jean, her charming daughter Margaret, husband and little daughters. Let us hope that many of us will be able to return for our 55th. And may we top the list in giving once again.

'18 BARBARA WELLINGTON, Nonquitt, Massachusetts

Assisting your perennial agent are DOROTHY MITCHELL BOODY, RUTH VAN BUREN DAMON, ETHEL CAINE GOODWIN, ELENA WADE JACK and INA DUVAL ROBILLARD. Send any one of them news for BEACON.

MARGUERITE BRODEUR LEE and I gave readings from Shakespeare at a Homecoming tea.

FAY GOODFELLOW VOM SAAL has returned from a trip abroad this past summer.

'19

Mrs. HELEN FRY GIBBON has given up her apartment temporarily and may now be reached at the Bright Glade Convalescent Center, 5070 Sanderlin Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee.

'23 Mrs. HELEN HEATH GILBERT, Danielson, Connecticut

Little did this class think when they left Huntington Chambers back in 1923, that it might one day be impossible to see that noble edifice again! Those of us who returned last June for our Fortieth experienced a distinct shock when we viewed the rubble on the block which once included No. 30 Huntington Avenue. When you return for your Fiftieth, it may well be that you will travel right over this hallowed spot and hardly realize it. But it will be with a feeling of nostalgia that you recall rushing in and out of those portals, now just a memory. Time marches on!

'25 HELENA COOK (Mrs. Charles H.) BEALE, 17 Rosemary St., Needham Heights 94, Massachusetts

Mrs. EVELYN SCHNEIDER PEARL, speech therapist in Braintree, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Lakeville-Freetown Loins Club. Mrs. Pearl included in her talk a tape recording of children's voices and speech impediments.

'27 MYRNA DUNHAM (Mrs. George J.) JUNG, 70 Greenwood Street, Greenwood, Massachusetts

Our apologies to our loyal classmates. 20 and 7 is long past due. May we thank you who have written to us since the last issue: KATHERINE O'CONNOR BLAIKIE, DOROTHY CRABTREE BAIR, HELEN MICHELSON RUBEN, BEATRICE CARRUTHERS MAXWELL, RUTH RICHARDSON HUNT, MARIAN GEORGE HANSON, ESTHER CALDERWOOD, RACHEL SAMPSON TIRRELL, AILEEN WILLENNAR, ELEANOR LEE MULLIGAN, DR. JOHNNYE AKIN, MAUDE I. BEAN, RUTH STRATTON SHADER, VIRGINIA W. FRANKLIN, NELLY MAGEE, ELLEN FIREOVED, MARTHA ALLEN DUNBAR, FRANCES BRINKERHOFF BOSTELMANN and ERNESTINE KIRBY FRIGERIO. Both Carolyn, due to her own illness and Myrna, due to the serious illness of her husband during the past year, have been pretty much out of circulation. They ask that all classmates communicate with them during the holiday season with messages for the next 20 and 7. Please write.

ELEANOR MULLIGAN is now living at 63 Elsie Road, Brockton, Mass., 02402 and VIDA ISHERWOOD VENTERS has returned to teaching since the death of her husband. She is now living at 361 North Townview Court in Mansfield, Ohio.

Dr. LEONARD W. JOLL was recently added to the faculty at the University of Hartford. Since 1951, Dr. Joll has been associated with the State Education Department in Connecticut. In addition to teaching graduate courses, Dr. Joll will direct the undergraduate elementary education program.

'34 EDITH STONE (Mrs. Sidney) BIRNBAUM, 1980 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts

Miss SYBIL HOWE was featured in an article in an October issue of the Burlington, Vt. Sunday News. Miss Howe is assistant director of the Elizabeth Lund Home for unwed mothers. She works mainly with couples who wish to adopt babies born at the home. In the course of a week, Miss Howe is in close contact with clergymen and doctors. She additionally arranges tutoring and work and craft programs for girls in the home.

'35 MRS. JUNE HAMBLIN MITCHELL, 4 Arlington Street, Apt. 21, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02140

BETTY HUGHES MORRIS presented a slide-lecture show entitled "Provincetown: Puritan and Pagan" to the Literature and Drama Group of the Westwood, Mass. Woman's Club in November.

SPORTS

EMERSON

- Emerson's wrestlers join the NEIWA.
- Panthers sport a 4-2 record as this issue goes to press.
- Most ambitious schedule ever for basketball squad.

Wrestling, under the direction of Haig Der Marderosian '54 and Carl (Pete) Eastman '60, has taken another giant step forward at Emerson. At the end of November, Emerson was elected to membership in the New England Intercollegiate Wrestling Association, a group which includes such colleges at Amherst, B.C., Connecticut, Dartmouth, Massachusetts, Tufts, and Williams. That's pretty good company for a college which has fielded a wrestling team only for the past four years.

The schedule for 1964 includes:

January 9	Brandeis
February 14	Holy Cross*
February 21	U. of Hartford*
February 29	Boston College
March 5-6	NEIWA Tournament

Home matches are marked with an asterisk (*) and are held at the Burdett College Gym, 10 Brimmer Street. The NEIWA Tournament will be held at Amherst, Massachusetts.

As this issue went to press, the basketball team had already swung into competition, and sported a 4-2 record by December 12. The Panthers had taken New Hampshire JC 86-78, Newton JC 70-63, and Calvin Coolidge 99-90, while losing overwhelmingly to Bentley, 126-61, and being edged by Burdett 79-70. Their fourth win was 2-0 over Quincy JC, in a game forfeited by the officials.

The basketball schedule for 1964 is as follows:

January 9	at Wentworth
January 11	at Gordon
January 13	Calvin Coolidge*
January 15	Cambridge Radio*
February 7	Newton JC (at Boston Garden)
February 10	New Hampshire JC*
February 13	Burdett*
February 15	Johnson and Waies (at Cambridge YMCA)
February 17	Suffolk*
February 19	Cambridge Radio*
February 21	at Wentworth
February 24	Bryant*
February 26	Mass. Art*
March 1	at Quincy JC

Games at Boston Latin Gym are marked with an asterisk (*). For starting times and other information, call the Public Relations office at the College (262-2010, ext. 30).
